ABOUT US

We're suppliers of an unbeatable range of local produce as well as wholesalers and distributors of the best fruit and vegetables from growers across the globe.

Locally grown fruit and vegetables are key to what we do. Our depot lies at the centre of three of the UK's major growing regions, Evesham to the south, Yorkshire and Lancashire to the north and The Fens to The East. We have long standing relationships with the best growers in all three areas enabling us to be wholesalers and distributors of an unparalleled range of the finest locally grown fresh produce.

All these products and many others detailed on the map overleaf are grown and harvested within a few miles of the depot

Proudly Grown in Britain

We work directly  with 1,200 British farmers in East Anglia to grow our sugar beet.

The sugar beet then travels directly from farm to local factory - the most efficient journey from field to spoon.

In just a few simple steps our factory in Bury St Edmunds turns the sugar beet into our range of homegrown sugars!

 What's more we really care about sustainability; our bags are recyclable, we offset the paper we use by planting trees, we send nothing to landfill and our excess production energy powers British homes.

MARKET REPORT

June 2023

JUNE UPDATE

Each month Dole provides an update on what is happening in the marketplace.

We explain which new lines we expect to see in the following month, the produce causing us concern and which lines are at their very best.

OVERVIEW

Whoop whoop summer has arrived! This is the month where many spring-sown crops will be ready for harvest so brace yourself for more glorious soft fruit along with the appearance of some heavenly summer veg.

You can almost hear summer memes whispering in the grass as they anticipate the 'treasures' ahead. However, in the coming weeks choosing the correct spud can be a minefield.

The wrong choice would be like wearing your Hawaiian shirt to a black-tie dinner, you'll be remembered for all the wrong reasons!

POTATOES

Due to the extreme hot weather last summer farmers had experienced loss of yield of around 35% of the UK planted potato, which pushed up prices throughout the season.

We are now at the back end of the stored Potato which is seeing a higher deterioration of product quality which in turn is pushing prices up to unprecedented levels on all varieties with pricing changing weekly.

You will see the odd sprouting and soft potato in these bags and Bakers will look a bit dull with some markings.

Please be assured we are working very hard with our growers and supply chains to get the best possible produce during this difficult period. As a result we will be working off Market pricing only, so please speak to your salesman or please the office and speak to someone in our admin team.

VEGETABLES

Early grower reports are suggesting there may be a delay with some products due to colder temperatures in Spring.

New season UK Cauliflower and Broccoli will be available at the beginning of June.

Leeks have now moved over to Spanish and will be followed by French before we move back to New season UK around the middle of July.

Carrots are now using New season Spanish where you will see an increase in pricing, moving back to UK new season in July.

Stevia and Parsnips are to be avoided as we come to the end of the UK season, will see Spanish import Parsnips which will be expensive.

2. Entire Agreement
These conditions and the documents referred to in them constitute the entire agreement between the Company and the Customer and supercedes any previous agreement between them, including any terms and conditions which the Customer purports to apply under any purchase order, confirmation of order, specification or other document.
3. Limits of Contract
Each order by the Customer is accepted by the Company on the basis that these Conditions shall apply to the Contract between them for the supply of the Goods detailed in the order.
4. Delivery and Risk
 - 4.1. Any dates specified by the Company for delivery of the Goods are intended to be an estimate and time for delivery shall not be made of the essence by notice. The Company shall endeavour to keep to any stated dispatch or delivery date, and shall use its own drivers or make other such arrangements as the Company sees fit for the delivery of the Goods to the Customer.
 - 4.2. If any order for Goods is to be delivered by several instalments, each such instalment shall be treated as a separate and identifiable contract, and shall be invoiced and paid in accordance with the provisions of the Contract. The Company shall be entitled to suspend or cancel delivery whilst payment is overdue in respect of any previous instalment or under any other contract with the Customer, without prejudice to the exercise of any other rights hereunder or under any other such contract.
 - 4.3. All risks, whether insurable or otherwise, relating to the Goods shall pass to the Customer upon the Goods being left at the Customers premises irrespective of whether or not the costs of transportation of the Goods is payable by the Customer.
 - 4.4. If for any reason the Customer fails to accept delivery of any Goods when they are ready for delivery, or the Company is unable to deliver the Goods on time because of a lack of instruction from the Customer, the risk in the Goods shall pass to the Buyer (including for loss or damage caused by the Company's negligence) and the Goods shall be deemed to have been delivered.

- 8.6.  - 9.3. Save as otherwise required by UK legislation, the Company's total liability for any loss, damages, costs or expenses shall not exceed an amount equal to the invoice value for the Goods.
10. Suspension or Termination on Breach
The Company reserves the right to suspend, delay or terminate any contract or to require payment in advance if the Customer is in breach of any of its obligations to the Company, if the Customer sues execution or distress to be levied upon any of its property, or if (being an individual) the Customer become bankrupt or makes any arrangement with its creditors, or (being a company) enter into liquidation (whether compulsory or voluntary), or shall have a receiver or administrative receiver appointed of all or any of its assets. Upon occurrence of any of the above events the Company shall (in addition to its rights to recover from the Customer all sums due to the Company) have the right to recover or deduct or set-off the amount of any loss, damage or expense incurred by the Company by reason of the Customers breach and (in the case of termination of any contract) the right to recover any goods supplied and to retain or sell them. The Company also shall be entitled to withhold any monies that are owed to the Customer by the Company as contra payment of any of the above breaches.
11. Force Majeure
The Company reserves the right to defer the date of delivery or to cancel the Contract or reduce the volume of the Goods ordered by the Customer (without liability to the Customer) if it is prevented from or delayed in the carrying on of its business due to circumstance beyond the reasonable control of the Company including, without limitation, acts of God, governmental actions, war or national emergency, acts of terrorism, protests, riot, civil commotion, fire explosion, flood, epidemic, lock-outs, strikes or other labour disputes (whether or not relating to either party's workforce), or restraints or delays affecting carriers or inability or delay in obtaining supplies of adequate or suitable materials, provided that, if the event in question continues for a continuous period in excess of 2 days, the Customer shall be entitled to give notice in writing to the Company to terminate the Contract.
12. Notices
Any notice to be served on the Company shall not be validly served unless it is sent by prepaid registered post to the Company's sales manager at the address specified on the fact of the invoice.

 - 13.2. No failure to exercise or delay in exercising any right, power or remedy under these Conditions will operate as a waiver of that right, power or remedy. Any waiver of a breach of any terms of these Conditions, does not constitute a waiver of any other breach and shall not affect the other terms of these Conditions.
 - 13.4. The parties to the Contract do not intend that any term of the Contract shall be enforceable by virtue of the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 by any person that is not a party to it.
